WEEKLY ROUND-UP

Boars go top of Division One as Wanderers surprised at EP.

All the leading sides in the Premier Division won, so it's a case of as you were at the top. Newhaven ran out convincingly 4-1 winners at Crawley Down Gatwick, while both Steyning & Crowborough recorded 1-0 home wins.

In form striker Tom Chalaye came up with his 11th goal in the last 6 games, to give the Barrowmen all three points, while Steve Smith struck his first goal for the Crows following his recent transfer from neighbours Jarvis Brook.

Hassocks recorded their fifth straight win to stay 4th, while Eastbourne United are now fifth after their thumping 7-0 home success against struggling Saltdean. A hat-trick from Rhyle Ovenden and another brace from Callum Barlow saw the U's to their biggest win of the season. In the process, United overtook Haywards Heath into the final play-off place, after Heath were held to a 2-2 draw at Midhurst. Eastbourne Town, helped by a James Hull brace eased to a comfortable 4-0 at AFC Varndeanians to stay within reach of the play-off places.

Little Common won 3-1 against bottom side AFC Uckfield to consolidate their mid-table position, while the remaining games both finished all-square as a Ramon Santos double saw Shoreham take a point from YMCA (2-2), and Peacehaven & Lingfield drew one each at the Sportsfield.

In Division One, struggling East Preston shocked Dorking Wanderers 2-1 at the Lashmar, this result enabled Roffey to take over at the top again, following their own 3-1 success at bottom club Oakwood.

Worthing United remain third, following their victory against Alfold by the only goal at Lyons Way, while Selsey came out on top in the important clash at fellow play-off chasing Seaford Town, by winning 2-1.

Godalming Town remain in 4th place, although they could only draw 1-1 at Mile Oak, while Wick moved into the last play-off place by winning 3-1 at Billingshurst, and Arundel kept their own hopes alive by winning 4-3 in a topsy-turvy game at Banstead Athletic, thanks to two apiece from both Steve Herbert & Carl Brown.

Bosham stay top of Division Two, although they could only draw 2-2 at home with Upper Beeding, despite a brace from Ashley Harris, while Storrington in second earned an important three points after coming from behind to defeat fellow Intermediate Cup Semi-Finalists Rustington.

Jarvis Brook remain in contention following a comfortable 4-0 home win over Capel, while Hailsham were held to a 1-1 draw by St. Francis Rangers.

Ferring with numerous games in hand, remain very much in contention as a Keiran Wallace hat-trick helped them to a 6-2 win over Brighton Leccy, and Southwater stay fifth after winning 3-1 at bottom placed Rottingdean Village.
