WEEKLY ROUND-UP

Barrowmen storm the Robins nest !

Following several days of heavy rain, only three games survived in each of the top two Divisions, however, there was still significant action in the race for the Premier Division title, as Steyning made a clear statement in winning 4-0 at Hassocks, including another brace from Tom Chalaye, who now has 22 goals from 20 games!

Newhaven, returned to the top as they eventually winning 5-3 in a topsy-turvy game with struggling Saltdean, another brace here from Lee Robinson. In the only other Premier game to beat the weather Peacehaven won 3-0 at Withdean stadium against AFC Varndeanians.

In Division One Wick & Seaford kept their play-off ambitions very much on target – A Dave Crouch hat-trick helped Wick to a convincing 5-2 win over Alfold, while Tyler Capon's brace saw Seaford come from behind to win 2-1 at Banstead Athletic.

However, Godalming's play-off hopes were dealt a blow as an Alfie Goble strike deep into stoppage time salvaged a point for Montpelier Villa (2-2).

Only one game was played in Division Two, Ferring (having switched to the 3G at Steyning) came from two down at half time to eventually draw 3-3 with Rottingdean Village, helped by a Joe Sadler double.
