Criminal Records Bureau Checks

The FA's Safeguarding Children Regulation's Section 2 states that anyone who is in a position (or applying to be in a position) that The Association deems relevant whose normal duties include caring for, training, supervising or being in sole charge of children, must comply with the requirements of The Association's CRB process. The first of those requirements under 2(i) is that individual obtains an FA CRB Disclosure. This includes club coaches, managers, and other volunteers. If you are unsure if a club member is eligible for a CRB Disclosure please contact The FA CRB Unit on 0845 210 80 80.

If your club has not completed the necessary FA CRB Disclosures please contact the FA CRB Unit on 0845 210 80 80 to start the process.

How many volunteers have completed this process via The FA CRB Unit ?

This can be confirmed by the Club Welfare Officer who can access the Members' Services, Online Safeguarding Service which is available through your local County FA website. Details on how your Welfare Officer can login to this service are available at www.TheFA.com/footballsafe

Please Note: Accessing the Members' Services Online Safeguarding Service gives Welfare Officers access to a club safeguarding status report detailing all Club Officials, managers/Coaches safeguarding education and CRB status which can be printed and used as supporting documentation.

Coaching, Safeguarding Children and Emergency Aid Requirements

At least one person working with every Under 18 team, must be in receipt of either an FA Level 1 Certificate in Coaching Football award as well as a current FA Safeguarding Children certificate and an in-date FA Emergency Aid Certificate or a recognised first aid certificate (See criteria explained).

For adult teams at least one person per team must have an in-date FA Emergency Aid certificate or a recognised first aid qualification approved by the Health and Safety Executive. If this person is a player in the adult team an additional person is required as a first aider. This can be another player.

THANK YOU

Thank you for completing The FA Charter Standard Application. By doing so you are contributing to raising standards within grassroots football. Club development is an integral part of The FA's National Game Strategy with the aim of improving the quality and sustaining the involvement of players, coaches, administrators, volunteers and referees in football.

The FA commend you on your commitment and dedication in supporting this aim and hope that this process will allow you to gain recognition for the service you provide to the local football community.
